Dear Mr. Frobose:

Thank you very much for your letter of support. A vote of confidence from someone who has done so much himself to advance language education in this country is especially appreciated.

As to a sequel to The Tongue Tied American, I rather doubt it will come in the near future. The Senate campaign is keeping me too busy.

Best of luck.

Cordially,

COMMISSION ON EDUCATION AND LABOR

U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20540

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON EDUCATION AND LABOR

Volume 1, Part 1

The Commission on Education and Labor was organized by Executive Order on July 1, 1959, to study the relationship between education and labor in the United States. The Commission was composed of representatives from the Department of Education, the Department of Labor, and the public. Its mandate was to identify the major issues and to propose effective solutions.
